to 8 Skoda radio trucks.

- h. A radiotelephone communication center was also located in the Masaryk Barracks. It was alternately operated by three selected officers who were subordinate to Staff Captain Kvarta (fnu) of the Hq 6th Div.
- 5. The mobilization depot (Mor-Depot) for signal equipment for the entire 6th Div was also located in the Masaryk Barracks.

Other Military Units in Brno and Other Military Posts.

- 6. Other military units in Brno included the 31st Inf Regt in an installation just northwest of the Masaryk Barracks in the Kralovo Pole borough; an engineer battalion in the Pisarky suburb west of Brno; a light, horse-drawn, artillery battalion in a barracks installation on the east side of Prague Street on a level with the Masaryk Barracks; another artillery battalion and a motor transport battalion, which source believed to be the 6th, in the Cerme Pole borough; and a heavy artillery battalion in the Zidenice borough. (3)
- 7. Other military units known to source included an infantry regiment in Znojmo (0 49/S 06); a unit in Mikulov (P 49/S 56), which was referred to as a reserve unit of the PS and whose personnel wore red cpaulets; a tank unit and a heavy artillery battalion in Vyskov•(P 50/N 71); a school for signal-communication mechanics in Zabreh na Morave (P 50/N 58); and an AAA unit in the Jiskrov Barracks northwest of the Clomouc (P 50/N 85) main railroad station. In the summer of 1951, several AA guns on four-wheel mounts were seen in the yard of this installation. Soldiers seen there were red-bordered black epaulets. (4)
- 8. Prior to August 1950, a signal reserve officers school under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Hell (fnu) was located in Nove Meste rad Vahom (P 49/T 36). An artillery and an engineer unit were also stationed in Nove Meste nad Vahom. The engineer unit was quartered in an installation in the city center. (5)
- 9. Prior to August 1949, the Vojenska Skola Jana Zizky, a military school in Moravska Trebova (P 50/N 46), was under the command of Captain Ciebol (fnu) and was subordinate to the 6th Div. The school consisted of 3 three-story buildings and some low wooden buildings and was located on the south side of the road to Rozstani (P 50/N 46), southeast of Mor. Trebova. Volunteers, 17 or 18 years old, received military training there. Their dress uniforms consisted of blouses with gold buttons, dark-blue trousers, dark-blue berets, low black shoes and dark-blue 25X1 socks. (6)

	the present report is possibly the 305th Arty Bn which is carried in Erno, but is carried as being subordinate to an artillery brigade.
(4)	The 24th Inf Regt, which is also subordinate to the 6th Inf Div. is carried in Znojmo. The tank unit in Vyskov is possibly the 11th Tank Brig, which is subordinate to the Tank Corps; or the tank school. The AAA unit in Olomouc might be the 152d AAA Regt.
(5)	Nove Mesto nad Vahom is known to be the signal communication training center.
	The 12th Engr Bn is also carried there.
